

New York Real Estate Journal

October 3-9, 2006

Dermot Co. and Bovis Lend Lease top out 510 and 515 10th Ave.

MANHATTAN, NY Recently, the Dermot Company and Bovis Lend Lease LMB Inc. held a topping out for their development in Clinton, a mixed-use project with two 24-story towers that incorporate 627 apartments, two theaters, a park off of 10th Ave. and retail space. Located on an expanse on 10th Ave. between 51st St. and 53rd St., this versatile property will further the flurry of residences and businesses that will enhance the West Side and is a joint venture partnership with The Dermot Co. and Archstone Smith.

Shown (from left) are: Bill Dickey, partner, The Dermot Co.; Stephen Benjamin, partner, The Dermot Co.; Daniel Doern, VP, development, Archstone Smith; Jim Dunlap, sr. VP, Archstone Smith; James Brown, sr. project manager, Bovis Lend Lease; James Abadie, principal in charge, Bovis Lend Lease; Michael Marrone, sr. VP, Bovis Lend Lease; Tony Marrone, VP and project executive, Bovis Lend Lease.